

Key Insight:

High discounts (above 30%) are driving negative profitability, with Tables as the primary loss-making sub-category.

- Increasing discount levels lead to a clear decline in average profitability, with negative returns beyond ~25–30%.